SAFEGUARDING OF CHILDREN

We are required by child protection legislation to ask for the following information.

Please list below any convictions or police cautions. Under the relevant Act, "spent convictions" must be declared
Have you ever been barred from working with children? If so, please give details.
Are there any other circumstances relevant to your appointment as a teacher which ought to be declared?

Please Note: d'Overbroeck's aims to promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talents, skills and potential, without respect to age, gender or race and welcomes applications from diverse candidates. As d'Overbroeck's meets the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, all applicants who are offered employment will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Disclosure of criminal background from the Disclosure and Barring Service before their appointment is confirmed. This will include details of cautions, reprimands and final warnings, as well as convictions. Criminal records will be taken into account for recruitment purposes only when the conviction is relevant.

DATA PROTECTION ACT

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 your consent is required to process the information you have supplied for the purposes of recruitment and selection. The information required is necessary for selection purposes and will be used by our school for the selection and verification process in connection with any vacancy that arises. Under the Data Protection Act 1998 you have the right of access to any electronically and/or manually held information. By signing the declaration at the end of the application form, you give permission for your details to be used in this way.

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR)

As a 'data controller' under data protection law, d'Overbroeck's takes legal responsibility seriously and complies with the Data Protection Act 2018 (as above) and the new General Data Protection Regulation.

DECLARATION

It is important that the information provided in this form is true and that all material matters relevant to your application have been declared. Failure to do this, if discovered following appointment, constitutes grounds for dismissal. The school reserves the right to check any of the details which you have provided in your application.

I have read the above and confirm that the information contained in my application is correct and complete.

I give the employer the right to investigate all references and to secure additional information about me, if job-related.

I hereby release from liability the employer and its representatives for seeking such information and all other persons, corporations or organisations for furnishing such information.

I understand that the school will need to hold my data and sensitive personal data and I consent to the processing of such data within the terms permitted by the Data Protection Act.
